7 months.

If anyone should call me to resign what most I prize it is not my mine to yield to the will of the people.

They will be dead.

THE HUDSON'S BAY CO'Y.

This good old institution which was founded far back in the centuries by Prince Rupert of England's memory, can boast today of many among its official employees who are worthy to be the modern representatives of the energy and enterprise which originated the company's adventures of English trading into Hudson's bay. Down the long corridor of time—in 1670 there were few, indeed, who could have foreseen in the horizon of the company's magnificent success—it has since attained. When that illuminations of the hopes of the illutrons adventurers around the cold and barren promontories of Hudson's bay, the prospects of empire and civilized communities were dimly indicated; shrouded in the gloom of impenetrable forests, and darkened by the ravages of savage hostility.

Long since these obstacles have been swept away by the heroic endurance and persistent faith of the hardy traders and their followers.

The present calls for a different phase of our activity. Commerce demands speed and permanence as of yore, but the conditions are no longer the same.

With the inevitable conditions of trade, competition and progress. It calls for generalship of a more subtle, if less heroic kind. It demands upon the part of the successful representative of trade, a shrewd knowledge of the public mind and a degree of tact and energy, which is more necessary in the present than was the old-fashioned, unhesitant and heavy element a lesson which, if heeded, will keep them in power. But if you defeat me the Government will conclude that the North-West does not want the tariff reformed. Then they will not reform the tariff; then they will lose the West and lose the reins of power.

"That argument," said Mr. Campbell, had a telling effect on many Conservatives.
At the time we had no means of refuting this sophistry. Without a new paper of our own, the opposition press did with us as they wished. They poured in editorial barrages against us that had to go unanswered. They reported friends meeting fully and freely, and without actually unrepresenting as they made our meetings and speeches look ridiculous."

The result of it all, Mr. Campbell says, is that the Conservatives of Winnipeg are determined to meet another power there.
To-day Mr. Campbell will apply at Ottawa for a charter to incorporate a company for this purpose. Mr. W. E. Luxton will probably be editor-in-chief.

But as to tariff reform, good Conservatives as Mr. Campbell is, he predicts that his party will be routed in the West unless it duties on agricultural imports are reduced to the very minimum. For example, the farmers there will not create the monopoly of the Massey manufacturing Company, when, according to the Wilson bill, Canadian farm implements are admitted free into the States. The Massey, he says, have declared the willingness to compete at even terms with the Americans.

ELECTION PROBABLE.

The information has been given out that His Honor Lieutenant-Governor Mac-tosh and Premier Haultain will in the course of the next month visit Ottawa for the purpose of conferring with the Dominion Cabinet on Northwest affairs, the exact nature of the affairs to be discussed is not known to the public of the Northwest. But it is rumored that chief among other things discussed will be the act of proclaiming another general election for the Territorial Assembly which it is now understood will take place in the year 1894. Although the necessary three years will not have elapsed before next October, the required number of sessions have been held and there is therefore no necessity for the holding of another session of the present Assembly. A great many people are of the belief that it is time that an expression of public opinion be given on the administration of the present Executive, and prospective candidates will have quite enough to occupy their time and thoughts between now and the day of the election by the discussion of such weighty and serious matters as immigration, the license system, the distribution of public money, education, responsible government, etc., upon all of which subjects the people of this country will require their particular views.

Ladies' Journal for December

This large monthly closes its fourteenth year with a brilliant Christmas number under the joint editorship of Mr. Thos.
Benjamin and Miss J. H. Wetherald.
Everything about the Journal shows new life and vigor. New type, new paper, beautiful new title-page, new department headings, specially designed by a Toronto lady, Miss Jolly, and new features, all go to make up a first-class publication that is a credit to Canada. Beautiful half-tone portraits of well-known ladies abound large ones of Lady Aberdeen, sitting at a spinning wheel, forming the front page.
An outline of this famous lady's life and work is given, together with a full report of her address to women at the mass meeting in Toronto in October. A special article by Mrs. Wetherald relates to the King's Daughters and is embellished with portraits of Mrs. Isabel Davis and Mrs.
Dickinson of New York, Mrs. T. J. Day of London, and Miss Brown of Toronto. A sketch of the new movement among the Methodists relating to the order of Deaconesses is illustrated with portraits of Sister Dora Stevenson (formerly of Hamilton) and Mrs. Lucy Rider Meyer. An interesting page headed, "Language Learning by Mother's Method," contains articles by Mr. Benjamin, based on personal interviews with Mrs. Jennie Drewry, who is introducing the Gouin method in teaching French; Herr Haupt—"German in five weeks," and Mr. Des Brisay—"Latin in six weeks." There are portraits of these three noted teachers. Charming Christmas stories have been specially written for the Journal by Mrs. Wetherald, Yough and Mrs. Fanny Crawford. First-class the latter being specially illustrated by a Canadian artist. The serial, "Mary St.
John," is also continued, and a new and thrilling romance, "A Fight for a fur-ture," is commenced. "Judge Martin" continues a clever interview with Elder Stead on women—their work, their needs etc., and Mrs. McDowell on "Women's Duty in the Republic." All the regular departments are in full swing—a special feature for boys being an article by a boy on the same subject, with an engagement from one of the pictures taken by the young author. The fashion plates have been selected with the co-operation of experts in leading dry goods houses in Toronto. Altogether there are 32 pages of interesting, profitable, varied matter, suitable for women of all ranks and tastes. $2 a year, 10 cts. a number.
Wilson Publishing Co., 73 Adelaide street West, Toronto.

CAMPBELL, THE CONSERVATIVE

Of Winnipeg. Warns the Government

Against the West.

Mr. Colin H. Campbell the "rejoice" of Winnipeg, is in Montreal to-day. In an interview at the Montreal last night Mr.

Campbell talked with all the candor of a man too honest to be a party politician, as to the causes of his defeat. They were he says, four fold: First, the failure of the C. P. R. to bring in the four hundred non-resident voters, who marked their ballots for Hugh John; the assumption of Protestantism by Mr. Martin; the lack of new-paper support, and last, but not least, the popular uprising against the high tariff of to-day.

On the last issue Mr. Martin took the stand of a pronounced disciple of Machivelli. He said in effect: "I am a Liberal;

I am an enemy of the Government; but if he can save the Government, vote for me.

By electing me you will teach the Government a lesson which, if heeded, will keep them in power. But if you defeat

IMMIGRATION.

Should financial aid be given to immigrants is a question upon which there has been no small amount of consideration and discussion on the part of those who wish to see the vacant lands of the Canadian West settled up. We believe that the question has been settled in the affirmative, and see no reason why this part of our immigration policy should not prove of substantial benefit to Canada if aid is extended and security taken on business principles. The idea of granting loans to new settlers is by no means a new one. It has already been put into practice and has resulted in a great many cases with much advantage. The securing of settlers possessed of capital is most desirable but it is not such an easy task as a great many people imagine and while the difficulty of inducing such people to forego for a time the comforts of older countries and perform a share of pioneer work exists, the fact remains that in many densely populated countries there are thousands of idle laboring families who would make excellent settlers for this country if they had the means to come here, go on land, build for themselves and purchase necessary implements, supplies, etc., and maintain themselves until a harvest can be reaped.

While due care should be taken against pauper immigration we should gladly welcome to our midst all who are able and willing to labor and there is not the slightest room for doubt that within this immense territory there are places for the poor of sound minds, bodies and willing hands. Many thousands of this class have already found comfortable homes for themselves in the North West. We believe there are thousands more of the intelligent, able bodied and industrious poorer classes of other countries who, if wisely aided by Government, could be obtained and who would do a few favorable seasons and ordinary exemption from adverse circumstances acquire prosperity. The people who would be assisted in making a good start in life would be the best of immigration agents and future large expenditures would be unnecessary.

THE MINISTER OF THE INTERIOR.

Hon. Mr. Duly, during his extended visit to Manitoba, the Territories and British Columbia visited all or nearly all important centres between Winnipeg and Victoria. He met deputations of individuals and transacted an immense amount of business connected with the Interior Department and became acquainted with the needs and requirements of the vast territory subject to the jurisdiction of his department in such a way as can only be attained by being personally on the ground. Mr. Duly having placed himself by this visit in thorough touch with the people and having acquainted himself with their wishes and desires there can be no reason to doubt that lasting benefit will accrue to this western country. The knowledge gained by him by personal inspection of the large tracts of splendid agricultural land awaiting settlement will also be of great value in the work of the Immigration Department, and if the vigorous efforts put forth by the department to settle up our vacant lands are supplemented by equal activity on the part of residents of this country, it will be strange if the results are not most favorable.

There are stored in Chicago elevators upwards of 11,000,000 bushels of wheat, the greatest quantity ever known there before. There are rooming in Chicago streets and sleeping where they can 117,000 famishing men the report does not say how many women. Is it not a keen satire on the rights of possession and the right of property (these much food should come from) much famine and that famine who should be on guard? These are the problems which set men thinking, not thoughts of peace and good will, but thoughts of revolt and bitter

This is the danger which men see in the United States. The army of unemployed is steadily on the increase. Will it patiently endure delay until it rises in rebellion and small nations better its condition. These are the questions which are causing deep concern across the line.

The Canadian Auxiliary Association in connection with the mid-winter fair at San Francisco has forwarded a circular to this office giving particulars of the efforts the association is making to provide for the comfort and enjoyment of Canadian visitors to the exhibition. April 2 has been set apart to be specially honored as Canadian day, when dances and other Canadian games will be arranged for and valuable trophies and medals have been promised by the Director General.

Though the depression in business may fret men's souls, though the unemployed may find their situation a vexatious hand may become a fixed condition, though there may be a cruel, devastating war in Europe, though there may be many untoward occurrences to distract attention or divert men's minds, the country will keep an unblinking eye on Jacksonville, Fla., for two months watching the play of those two sturdy infants, Mitchell and Corbett, before they come to hard hostilities.

The Great Liberal Leader of England, W. E. Gladstone, reached the ripe old age of 84 years on December 29. He was then in the enjoyment of remarkably good health. Congratulations from Queen Victoria, Prince and Princess of Wales, Emperor William and the Czar of Russia were received and messages and presents from many far away places came to the G.O.M.

It is said that Speaker LeBlanc of the Quebec Legislature will have Mr. Tarte arrested for the language he used to the Speaker in the lobby of the House on December 23. Tarte called the Speaker a "blackguard" and says he would be only too glad to unharness his mind a little further on the subject.

At the monthly meeting of the C.P.R. dividend a dividend of 5 percent, per annum for the half year ending December 31, was announced to be payable altogether after the end of the month.

The murder of the old couple at Port Credit named Williams has been caught and is now in Brampton jail. His name is William Walter McWhinell.

Thos. A. Kefer, one of Port Arthur's most enterprising citizens, was called to his last resting place after a brief illness on December 28th.

William Rigney, a boy of 16 years of age, living a Qu'Appelle has been given up as lost. He is supposed to have perished on the prairie.

Rain fell in many parts of Ontario on Christmas Day. In some places the snow entirely disappeared. It was different in the North West.

Thomas Clark of Her Majesty's Customs and a prominent citizen of Winnipeg died on Friday, December 29th inst., aged 61 years.

The new Massey Music Hall in Toronto which will seat 4000 people will be opened next June with a grand musical festival.

The Regina Leader asserts the Government that the people of the North West are looking eagerly for the ballot.

The Independent Order of Foresters of Canada have declined to affiliate with the order in the State of Illinois.

W. F. Luxton denies that he intends starting a Conservative newspaper in Winnipeg.

Two very serious fires occurred at Carberry and Miami, Manitoba on December 29.

New Year's Day passed off very quietly.
Considerable "canning" was done, but not such an extent as in former years. The weather was lovely, of which many took advantage and enjoyed a long drive into the country.

The many friends of Robert McKay, of old hands at the business the curlers can rest satisfied they will accomplish what they undertake. The first match will be president vs. vice-president and will be played on Monday next, when a good turn out of players is expected.

were present being apparently satisfied with the statements laid before them.

The auditor, Mr. John Stewart, was present and said he had thoroughly examined the books and found everything satisfactory and correct. The meeting then adjourned.

POINT ST. CHARLES, P.Q.
Messrs. DICK & CO., Montreal:

Dear Sirs, Have now several packages of your celebrated "Cut Plug" Powder with unsolicited results my horse has resulted in working on the road all winter, and has not had a day's trouble. Until within the last month I have had them in town, and your Powder, which have brought them to a first-class state of health, inconceivable to be worth their full value now.

Yours truly,
JAS. HANBURY,
Master Carter

After the annual meeting yesterday, the Board of Trustees of the Central School held a short meeting, where several business items were brought before the Board. Dr. Bates, having fulfilled the requirements of the law, took his seat at the Board for the first time. The passing of a couple of accounts and the election of a chairman for the ensuing year was about the bulk of the business to be attended to, Mr. T. O. Davis being re-elected. The members of the Board now are—T. O. Davis, chairman; Messrs. T. E.
Baker, D. C. McLeod, J. D. Stewart and Dr. H. C. Baker.

POPULAR EVERYWHERE.

Beginning with a small sale in a retail drug store, the business of Hood's Sarsapilla has steadily increased until there is scarcely a village or hamlet in the United States where it is unknown.

To-day Hood's Sarsapilla stands at the head in the medicine world, admired in property and valued in merit by thousands of would-be competitors. It has a larger sale than any other medicine before the American public, and probably greater than all other preparations and blood purifiers combined.

Such success proves merit.

If you are sick, is not the medicine for you to try? Hood's Sarsapilla cures.

Last week we forgot to mention the Christmas tree entertainment at the Methodist church, but it took place just the same, as we were told. In the afternoon the children were entertained to tea, cake and other good things, and as some of the youngsters said, had a lovely time.
In the evening the church was filled with parents and friends of the children, when a very enjoyable time was spent in listening to the singing, recitations and short speeches by some of the officers of the church and Sunday school. The reports of officers showed the school to be making good progress, and the membership steadily increasing. Before closing, the children were made happy by the presentation of prizes and presents, every one of them receiving a token from the Christmas tree, which we have no doubt will urge them to increased attention to their Sunday school duties during the coming year.
